No War on Ukraine - Stop NATO Expansion

British politicians are playing with fire stoking up the tension around Ukraine. This includes sending arms to the Ukraine and a number of inflammatory speeches. Britain should be advancing serious diplomatic proposals to defuse the tension and seek a solution to the crisis rather than ratcheting it up. Stop the War demands an end to the relentless expansion of NATO and calls for the British government to distance themselves from the policies of the USA and develop an independent foreign policy.
